

Newsletter

marshall, michigan

VIDEOS

About Marshall

From stories of an escaped slave to Marshall building a Governor's Mansion in anticipation of being the state's capital, Marshall is rich in history.

BLUESFEST

Summer In Marshall

Marshall's Annual BluesFest returns with music, food, and fun on June 22, 2024, downtown. Bring chairs, explore shops, and more. Discover Marshall's endless entertainment and plan your getaway. Explore museums, breweries, restaurants, and events. Hop on a trolley tour for a historical adventure.

Follow Us! —>

Save the Dates

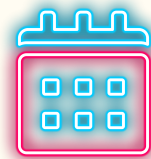

These BIG events are crowd favorites and create lasting memories. If you've never been, come discover these new traditions and vibrant atmospheres that only Marshall can offer. Save these dates!

#choosemarshall

Summer of Fun

Mark your calendars and get ready for an unforgettable summer in Marshall! We've lined up a series of exciting events that you won't want to miss. From family-friendly festivals to live music, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

EVENTS
CALENDAR

Get ready to pop some tags on April 18th, it's Thrifty Thursday. Put together your best thrift store outfit and come downtown Marshall, Michigan for shopping, snacking, & sipping!

Let's Get Thrifty —>

